To study the differential effect of pertussis and cholera toxins on the secretion of insulin and glucagon, the pancreas of rats was perfused with normal and high glucose (5.6 mmol/l) solutions in the presence of the two toxins. The concentrations of insulin, glucagon and various metabolic intermediates in the perfusates were determined at 0 and 30 min after the addition of the toxins. Pertussis toxin at 10 or 100 ng/ml increased the secretion of insulin but not that of glucagon in response to high glucose. Cholera toxin at 0.1 ng/ml increased the secretion of both insulin and glucagon in response to high glucose. When the pancreas was perfused with insulin, pertussis toxin at 10 ng/ml slightly decreased the secretion of this hormone in response to high glucose, whereas cholera toxin at 0.1 ng/ml increased the secretion of this hormone. The basal and glucose-stimulated release of glucagon were not changed by the two toxins. It is concluded that there is a differential effect of pertussis and cholera toxins on the secretion of insulin and glucagon by alpha- and beta-cells, respectively.Laboratoire DESBIEN Laboratoire de Mathématiques d'Entreprise ET de Service en Informatique (Laboratory of Mathematics of Business and Service for Computer Technology) or simply DESBIEN is a French software company in the business of language, mobile and web development, based in Saint-Germain-en-

On a business level, summer offers many great things: sunshine, warm clothes, time to catch up on your sleep, eat well, and spend time with family. On a personal level, the temptation to indulge in something a little decadent is always in the air, and many a night has been ruined by over-indulging when there is nothing healthy or nutritious to eat. Despite it being the wrong time of year, some nights can still feel like a diet diet. When this happens, none other than Jillian Michaels has a little something to offer. In this video, she shares her tips to beat the diet diet, or in the words of her, "Diet Eat". "It's a beautiful day in the neighborhood, and a good day to die. So get up, get out, and get your ass in gear. Go out and shoot some deer. Go out and be my guest, cause this is a free country. And as long as I'm alive there's a chance you can live free too." - Wil Traumann John Mayer, Andrew W.K., Rob Bell, and a lot of other great artists have said this. Hundreds of thousands of fans have laughed at it. Now, they've turned it into an app. A new iPhone app is sure to make you laugh and inspired. The iShootMyself app lets users upload their own photos and videos of themselves getting shot. After someone takes a photo or video of them getting shot, the app geotags it and adds it to a map or in someone's gallery. The app offers two different shootings. The first is "The Invitational f678ea9f9e
